ELKS' CHARITY BALL

MANY NEW COSTUMES IN THE EVENT. SPLENDID

Notwithstanding the inclement weather of last night the attendance at the Elks' annual charity ball was as large as in former years. The hall was taxed to accommodate the dancers and the side lines were occupied by scores who came to look on. The orchestra arranged by Parker and Fife was at its best and the selections were of the very latest San Francisco standard. The ladies were their best and latest creations and their best and latest creations and some new and striking costumes were observed. Dancing was continued without intermission until one are in a position to instantly respond to the call of the nation."
